Standard 6: INVOLVING STAKEHOLDERS IN DECISIONS THAT AFFECT THEM

The Board seeks the views of local providers and the local community on LHD plans and initiatives for providing health services and also provides advice to the community and local providers with information about the LHD plans, policies and initiatives.

The Executive, with Board involvement, provides information and advice to the community and local providers about the LHD plans, policies and initiatives and seeks their views on Northern Sydney Local Health District (NSLHD) plans and initiatives for providing health services. Information dissemination and community voice is achieved through general community based Forums and special interest groups forums such as Carers, Youth, Disabled and Mental Health Consumer forums.

Through the engagement of patients, families, carers, friends, our staff and our community in our planning we are further developing our health services to meet the needs of current and future generations and improving the health of our community while ensuring that we continue to provide high quality safe care.

Supported by the Board, NSLHD is committed to enabling and enhancing opportunities for input and feedback. The District also strives to improve the health, well-being and the health literacy of our community through the availability and access to information and resources about our services and health-related topics tailored to the needs of consumers. An example of exemplary practice in health literacy is the District's purchase of the EIDO Consent Brochure library, a suite of plain English and pictorial brochures for the intellectually challenged, that simply explain clinical procedures, their risks, benefits and alternatives, for the purpose of achieving truly informed consent.

The NSLHD Consumer, Community, Care and Communications (CCCC) Committee is a Board Committee established to provide strategic advice and assurance to the Board as well as to enhance and improve stakeholder engagement and communication. The CCCC Committee is chaired by a Board member and membership includes four consumer advisors including the chairperson of the NSLHD District Consumer Advisory Council, a representative from the Aboriginal Health Service and up to three other members of the Board.

The NSLHD District Consumer Advisory Council (DCAC) provides advice and support to the CCCC Committee and the District's Operational Clinical Quality Improvement Committee. DCAC is chaired by a consumer advisor and membership is comprised of two consumer advisors representing each of the five facility/service Community Participation Committees as well as representation from the Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Community Advisory Committee, the Mental Health Consumer Network and two carer representatives.

Consumers are involved in governance processes through their membership and involvement on committees in the facilities and services within the LHD. Currently Royal North Shore Hospital, Ryde Hospital, Northern Beaches Health Services, Hornsby Hospital and Primary and Community Health have Consumer Participation Committees (CPC) which meet regularly to discuss consumer engagement and the patient experience in these facilities and services. Consumers are also involved in many other aspects of service evaluation and development including involvement as team members on service co-design and quality improvement initiatives. Currently NSLHD has more than 70 consumer advisors providing input in this capacity, with an ever increasing demand for their involvement.

MHDA has a peak Consumer Participation Committee and a Carer Network. Members from these committees also sit on the MHDA Clinical Council. The Carer Network in Northern Sydney is a partnership with experienced carers, mental health service providers and NGO representatives. It operates as one coordinated voice and a point of connection for carers to participate and provide input into MHDA planning and service delivery across the District. The Carer Network provides an avenue for consultation and planning towards improving service delivery for consumers and carers. Consumers and carers are members of a number of key committees, at both MHDA and sector/service level also participate in operational planning, service evaluation, education, quality improvement and research.

The NSLHD Carer Support Service is conducting a workshop in July to develop a District Carers Action Plan 2018 – 2022 which will identify strategies to address the actions in the recently released NSW Health Recognition and Support for Carers Key Directions 2018-2020. The workshop has multi-disciplinary representation and input and will identify strategies to improve services and the experience of carers as partners in care.

A general community forum is currently being planned for later in the year with the consumer advisors from the DCAC and local CPCs. This forum will include the presentation of annual awards to consumers for their involvement with NSLHD and will be held in partnership with Health Consumers New South Wales and Sydney North Primary Health Network.

Sources of consumer feedback include complaints captured via the NSLHD Incident Information Management System (IIMS). Complaints are investigated and managed at the facility/service level with the support of local patient representatives. Reporting to the Board on complaints occurs quarterly including reporting against target key performance indicators for acknowledgement and resolution of complaints. All KPIs for complaint management are currently achieved, i.e. 5 day complaint receipt response, 100% and 35 day complaint closure >80%.

The NSW Bureau of Health Information Patient Survey Program provides consumer feedback data to NSLHD regarding the patient's experience of their care at a facility level. These data are reviewed at both the CCCC Committee and DCAC as well as at each of the local CPC meetings.

In the near future, the NSW Agency for Clinical Innovation will be providing a portal to enable the collection of Patient Reported Measures related to a patient's health outcomes and experience. These data should be able to be collected in relative "real-time" and also be attributable at the service and ward level. This initiative will enable patients, families and carers to provide direct, timely feedback about their health related outcomes and experiences to drive improvement and integration of health care in NSLHD.

A Local Partnership Agreement is in place between the Aboriginal Medical Service Co-operative Limited and the Northern Sydney LHD, South Eastern Sydney LHD, Sydney LHD, St Vincent's health Network and Sydney Children's Hospitals Network.

Information on the key policies, plans and initiatives of the Organisation and information on how to participate in their development are available to staff and to the public at the internet site www.nslhd.health.nsw.gov.au. The site can be accessed by both Staff and the Public and includes information on the policies, plans and initiatives of the organisation. Major Service developments like the new hospital at Northern Beaches have their own web sites to keep the community informed about progress on the building developments. The Board rotates its meeting sites so as to visit each hospital facility at least once per year.

The LHD's intranet site <http://intranet.nslhd.health.nsw.gov.au/Pages/default.aspx> can be accessed by all staff.
